

The Table Game

Required:

Table for everyone to sit round
Wrapped prizes (details below)
Timer
Dice

Each member of the family must procure about 5 gifts, wrap them and place them in the centre of the table.

The gifts should be a mix of booby prizes, desirable and everyday items with at least a couple of gifts suitable for each player – a good mix would include:

- a tin of baked beans
- a toiletry set
- a CD
- pair of socks
- candles
- Orchard Toys game
- recipe book
- gift voucher
- jewellery
- magazine
- crayons
- bottle opener
- tights
- roll of tin foil

At the beginning of the game each player can select 3 wrapped parcels in turn and open them up.

Now the fun begins!

Set a timer for 5, 10 or 15 minutes (depending on your stamina!)

Taking it in turns, throw the dice.

If you get a 6 you get to select another present from the centre of the table.

If you get a 1 you are allowed to take any gift you wish from another player .

If you get a 3 you must give one of your gifts to another player.

When your timer runs out, each player is allowed to select one gift from their booty to keep forever. The rest of the items remain in the game for future play.
